BIG TIP FOR BARBER.

Millionaire Douglas Gordon Gave Him $1,400 to Buy His Own Shop.
Douglas Gordon, the millionaire brother of Senator Hanna's son's wife, recently presented George M. Duncan, a Hotel Cadillac barber in New York, with a check for $1,400 to enable him to buy his own shop, says the New York Evening Journal.

Duncan remarked that he would like to own a shop, and Mr. Gordon, when his shave was finished, wrote out the check and handed it to him and 15 cents for the shave. Before the astonished barber could recover his self possession Mr. Gordon had disappeared. The next day he presented the barber with two dogs valued at $200 and $250.

Some weeks ago Mr. Gordon gave a theatrical man a $1,000 check, but the recipient tore it up, he declining to accept such a large personal gift.

Our Sewest Forts.

Uncle Sam moves so quietly and swiftly that very few people would be aware of the work going on at the new fortifications if it were not for the newspapers, says the Lewiston (Me.) Journal. For the past two years at Cushing's and at Great Diamond Islands two of the most modern and strongest forts on the Atlantic seaboard have been in process of construction. They are the results of the highest engineering skill in the land. The fortifications embody the latest and most approved points in military construction, and both forts mount batteries of the largest guns in the world. When completed Portland will be the most strongly fortified port in America and as a strategic point one of the most important in the country.
